

Fresh Seafood and Vegetables in Port St. Joe

A new amenity for Port St. Joe is the SaltAir Farmer's Market. Unlike large cities the Forgotten Coast has never before had a fresh vegetable and seafood market; but now we do. Open from 10am-2pm on the 1st and 3rd Saturday of each month from April to November the SaltAir Farmer's Market provides fresh seasonal fruits and vegetables as well as local seafood. While you pick up your favorite fruits and veggies you can enjoy the sound of local bands as well as local artwork; but don't forget to stop by and catch a quick workshop demonstrating new recipes.

Once you've picked out your produce and seafood, have a seat and watch the local musicians. No matter what style of music you listen to, I'm sure our local talent won't let you down. Take a trip down Reed Ave. and shop Port St. Joe's local merchants.

Port St. Joe may not be that “big” city that you live in now, but isn't that what you like so much? If going to the SaltAir Farmer's Market is the only thing you had to do on a Saturday morning sounds good to you, check out our Port St. Joe Real Estate listings.
